Dr David Greaves

The Tension between Creativity and Therapy: A Tribute to Kate D'Lima

Kate D'Lima was a lecturer at DACE who sadly died before she was able to complete her doctorate. This talk describes her work on the use of creative writing with chronically ill and distressed patients and shows both its implications for practice and the development of medical models.

Venue: The Discovery Room, Swansea Central Library, Civic Centre, Oystermouth Road, Swansea, SA1 3SN

Thursday 9th November 2017, 6.30pm – 8:30pm

Dr Penny Sartori and Kelly Walsh

The Transformative Power of Near-Death Experiences (NDEs)

Following an NDE, many people are profoundly transformed. This talk describes ways in which people can be transformed and how this is conducive to our evolution. Kelly Walsh will describe how her life was transformed by her experience.

Venue: Faraday Lecture Theatre, Swansea University, Singleton Park, Swansea SA2 8PP (TBC)

Wednesday 13th December 2017, 3.30pm – 5.15pm

Peter Richards

Marilyn Monroe

Marilyn Monroe was one of the most legendary of screen goddesses. From humble beginnings she became one of the most famous women in the world. This illustrated talk looks behind the public face of an insecure woman who was constantly battling her demons.

Venue: The Discovery Room, Swansea Central Library, Civic Centre, Oystermouth Road, Swansea, SA1 3SN

Admission is free, but please note that for some lectures the seating is limited.

Family Reunification after the Holocaust

During the Holocaust, parents and children were often separated from each other for years. Where surviving parents and children found each other again after the war, we assume that such cases of family reunification must have marked 'happy endings', yet the archival record tells otherwise.

Venue: The Discovery Room, Swansea Central Library, Civic Centre, Oystermouth Road, Swansea, SA1 3SN

Saturday 17th February 2018, 2pm – 3pm

Professor Louise Miskell

The Swansea Copper Industry in a Changing Global Marketplace, c.1820-1860

The lecture will examine the transformation in global copper ore production and transportation which took place in the first half of the nineteenth century and how this affected the major copper smelting firms in Swansea.

Venue: The Discovery Room, Swansea Central Library, Civic Centre, Oystermouth Road, Swansea, SA1 3SN

Thursday 15th March 2018, 3.45pm – 5.30pm

Dr Don Williams

The Physicians of Myddfai

This celebrated Welsh medical tradition started in the 13th century as court physicians to the Welsh princes. Later medical skills were handed down in families in Myddfai, a remote village in Carmarthenshire, and it is remarkable that it has flourished into the 21st century.

Venue: The Discovery Room, Swansea Central Library, Civic Centre, Oystermouth Road, Swansea, SA1 3SN

Thursday 12th April 2018, 3.45pm – 5.30pm

Dr Ruth Horry

Getting the Bad Guy: The Psychology of Eyewitness Identification

Imagine that after witnessing a crime, the police ask you to look at a line-up. Could you identify the perpetrator? This talk explores the psychology of eyewitness identification, and why we so often get it wrong.

Venue: The Discovery Room, Swansea Central Library, Civic Centre, Oystermouth Road, Swansea, SA1 3SN

Wednesday 9th May 2018, 3.30pm – 5.15pm

Dr Regina Poertner

The Perils of Liberty: Wartime Legislation and the U.S. Constitution, 1917-1919

This talk investigates the legal fall-out from wartime paranoia and 'red scare' in the United States in the First World War and its immediate aftermath. The resulting legislation dealt with crimes as diverse and potentially elusive as obstruction of recruitment, active or passive civil and military disobedience, espionage, sedition, and trading with the enemy.

Venue: The Discovery Room, Swansea Central Library, Civic Centre, Oystermouth Road, Swansea, SA1 3SN
