APRIL/EBRILL

Hello again! Welcome to April's usual newsletter rundown of what's on across campus, and the city. It even actually looks springlike today, which is a change! There will be your usual useful reminders, particularly about summer accommodation this month, bursary info, and some tips and resources if you need them. As always, if you need me or have any questions please pop an email to Participation, I'm always happy to help you out!

EARTH DAY

April 22nd is International Earth Day! Events are going on across campuses, with Go Green Fair in the Taliesin on the 23rd of April! The event will have a wealth of interesting stalls and workshops across both floors of the Taliesin, to inform and intrigue us all around sustainability and climate awareness. Follow the week to book your free ticket! As well as our on-campus activities, why not get out into the local area to show your appreciation for our local environment? Click the link for some environmental and nature events.

SECOND BURSARY INSTALMENTS DUE

As we move quickly through Spring/Summer Semester, your second bursary instalments are due very soon. Second payments will be made during the first week of May and you do not need to reapply for this to be paid, your payment will be made to the account used for your first instalment. If you need to update bank details, please get in touch with Hardship Funds to update any information.

CENTRE FOR ACADEMIC SUCCESS WORKSHOPS

CAS run numerous workshops across the year to help you develop skills that will support your studies. There's a huge range, to choose from if you feel you need the help. They also offer a one-to-one service to students. Click the link to browse.

RESEARCH OPPORTUNITY

Swansea University PhD student Megan Evans is currently undertaking a project into Estranged students and graduates' experiences of university across England and Wales. She is looking to conduct interviews to inform her research. If you would like to get in touch with her to take part, click the link.

SUMMER ACCOMMODATION

If you are someone in need of accommodation over the summer, you may know that as a student supported by Participation@CampusLife you are entitled to 365 day a year university owned accommodation. If this sounds like something you would like to take up, please get in touch with accommodation sooner rather than later to ensure your place. Applications open on May the 1st, so please ensure complete this to avoid any issues.

THINKING ABOUT HOUSING?

After first year, many students will move off campus and into private accommodation, either independently or with a group of others. If you are looking to move out into the bustling wider Swansea area, the Students Union has a fab guide on housing in the city and tips for finding the right place for you. Click the pictures to find out.
